

IAMSA BUREAU OF SHIPPING
(IBSH)

TECHNICAL DEPARTMENT

FROM: IAMSA BUREAU OF SHIPPING
TECHNICAL DEPARTMENT

TO: to all IAMSA Surveyors

DATE: January 21th, 2012

SUBJECT: Requirements for IAMSA technicians assigned to perform duties as Class & Statutory Surveyors

A) IAMSA SURVEYOR shall demonstrate skills and training to execute all types of class & statutory surveys relevant to the process he is authorized to perform.

B) Following qualifications are required:

b.1) A degree or equivalent from a tertiary recognized institution within a relevant field of Engineering linked to the Maritime Sciences or a qualification from a suitable marine or nautical institution and relevant sea-going experience as a certified ship officer.

b.2) Work experience relevant to the Class & Statutory surveys.

C) Following aspects will be considered to evaluate suitability:

c.1) Experience from previous Class & Statutory related works.

c.2) Training courses completed in connection with class & statutory surveys and related IMO model courses.

c.3) Continuing education courses is necessary to fulfill the quality requirements of our Quality Management System, this updating may be through additional training courses, distant learning, and related services based on the specific needs of companies.

D) The following documents shall be provided for evaluation and approval as surveyor to IAMSA BUREAU OF SHIPPING:

d.1) Application an color digital photo (jpg format)

d.2) Updated resume

d.3) Copy of courses attended and certificates obtained.

d.4) Letters of references, certifications.

d.5) Certified Copy of the license or title as a marine or nautical engineer, naval architect, Captain, Chief Eng., First Officer or First engineer, Deck or Engineer Officer.

TECHNICAL DEPARTMENT